

Fractal Fairy Tales

THE TALE OF THE DARK CLOUD

by Cathy D. Slaght

Part VI – You Can't Get Out of the Jail You Don't Know You're in

Marcel Vogel had told Krystl he was a very special individual because he QUESTIONED.

Now, as he stared at the beautiful woman before him, he was asking himself...WHY should I follow HER?

(He had learned that looks could be deceiving!)

AND- What were ARCHIVES?

She seemed to be reading his mind, so said, "You'll have every opportunity to turn back.

I'm here because of the shift in consciousness you are now going through. It's time to acquaint you with the INVISIBLE WORLD and YOUR IMMENSE POWER."

And so, he began to walk with her.

"How are you doing with your anti-jumping campaign?" she asked, as they walked.

Krystl began his typical rant:

"People seem brainwashed. They say they are jumping because their favorite reporters on the news say they should. Their doctors agree, saying that many died of hopelessness last year."

Krystl would then ask his standard question "where did the numbers on people dying from hopelessness come from? You don't know, do you? Let me tell you- they come from the HDC- Hopelessness Disease Center."

He would then show them a 170-page report he had found online, and even printed out, showing causes of death in America for 2020-21. (Everything was still online if one had the time to DIG!)

“Look!” he would say. “Hopeless is near the bottom of the list. What the HDC says is not true. They’re skewing data, misrepresenting facts, trying to scare you into JUMPING.”

He was getting worked up.

“I’ve lost my job because I wouldn’t take the bridge jump!” he wailed. “Now some say I should be jailed for this kind of talk!”

The woman finally spoke.

“We’re living in a time of warfare between God and Satan.

Call it good and evil if you’re more comfortable with those terms. You probably are because evil leaders have tried to remove belief in God. It is essential you get disconnected from God, so that they can control you. Satanism is all about control because they want to control the resources of the planet. The BIGGEST RESOURCE is the energy of the Human Being.

I am NOT telling you this for you to DWELL on it, only because it is important to be AWARE.

Krystl stood, momentarily, frozen on the path, but she continued to walk...and talk...so he raced to catch up.

“Those on Planet Earth do not understand that they are immensely powerful. They operate as quantum computers- not man-made, but God-made. Their “software” is a receiver- transmitter, multidimensional radio tower, record storer- designed to access a database of information from an infinite web of information set in place to provide them with ALL”.

Krystl couldn’t help it; his mind was racing...that was just his nature. Was the story of the Garden of Eden in the Bible describing this field? Did the Evil One- if there was such a thing- somehow HACK the system? Maybe he’d learn more about it in the Archives? OR had he officially now gone crazy?

The woman was smiling- as if she could read his thoughts...

“Humans are a combination, in terms of their DNA, of all the most powerful beings in the Universe.

TOGETHER there is absolutely nothing they could not accomplish. There could be peace, freedom from lack in every form.

The Evil Ones are terrified that they will figure this out. It would end the trillions upon trillions of dollars that continually flow to them because of mankind’s wars, pandemics, etc. This is the reason for the endless campaign designed to separate them from one another.

Together Humans are a powerful connection of quantum computers! They can create anything they desire!

Until recently it was easy to keep them separated.

Now many are awakening...

Suddenly they came to two road signs, each pointing in a different direction. One said GROUPTHINK, the other DISCERNMENT.

Krystl hesitated- what exactly was discernment?

The woman spoke. “DISCERNMENT is a difficult path to follow. It involves seeing what is real vs. what is unreal.

GROUPTHINK is much easier, short-term anyway.

After just a moment, Krystl followed the DISCERNMENT path. There were numerous distracting signs along the way...WEALTH, POWER, STATUS... that could have taken him in another directions.

The woman noticed his interest: “There are greater things, real and lasting, than wealth, power, or status. Once you see them you won’t care as much about these other things.”

At that point there appeared another sign: DESIRELESSNESS

To continue towards the Archives, it was apparently necessary that he now take this route.

“This is about forgetting self” said the woman, “In fact, if you wish to access your true power, it is essential. All selfish desire hacks the energy system. Do you care too much about convincing the JUMPERS not to jump?”

If so, realize that they have free will, as do you.

Learn the virtue of silence. Do more listening than talking, and do not offer opinions unless directly asked.

In other words, mind your own business.

The only exception is regarding cruelty to an animal or child.

Also- as you follow this path you may gain some psychic power, but it will come at the right time. You must not care either way.

Following this path was even more of a challenge than the DISCERNMENT path. All along the way there were tempting detours...the greatest of which was psychic powers...but he followed the woman’s advice.

They were, she said, getting closer to the Archives

One last sign:

LOVE

“You’ve made it this far. Congratulations,” she said.

Following this path involves the realization that God is Love, and that in everyone there is good.

If you focus on the evil in others, you are a) filling the field with negative energy and therefore adding to the sorrow of the world b) strengthening and feeding evil and c) filling your own mind with evil thoughts.

This line of thought takes willpower, resolve, and determination, but will open the door to the ARCHIVES.

Krystl suddenly felt a jolt of energy. He realized, for the first time, that he could be a tremendous blessing to others if he could follow this final path.

And suddenly they were there...the ARCHIVES.

It appeared to be a TUNNEL.

She handed him a Light.

Stay tuned for part VII